lyrics to on the atchison topeka and the santa fe music by warren in the cool cool cool of the evening music by carmichael and moon river and days of wine and roses music for both by henry mancini you ve probably fallen in love with more than a few of mercer s songs his words have never gone out of fashion and with this superb collection it s easy to see that his lyrics elevated popular song into art this story collection is evidence of a writer who is in total control of her own peculiar original voice its pleasures are unexpected and manifold kate christensen elle lydia davis s stories may be literal one liners like the pithy bloomington or they may be surprising investigations into mundane disruptions such as a small story about a small box of chocolates the stories may appear in the form of letters of complaint they may be extracted from flaubert s correspondence or they may be inspired by the author s own dreams or the dreams of friends what does not vary throughout can t and won t lydia davis s fifth collection of stories is the power of her finely honed prose davis is sharply observant she is wry or witty or poignant above all she is refreshing davis writes with bracing candor and sly humor about the quotidian revealing the mysterious the foreign the alienating and the pleasurable within the predictable patterns of daily life winner of the pulitzer prize national bestseller a searing post apocalyptic novel about a father and son s fight to survive that only adds to mccarthy s stature as a living master it s gripping frightening and ultimately beautiful san francisco chronicle one of the new york times s 100 best books of the 21st century a kirkus reviews best fiction book of the century a father and his son walk alone through burned america nothing moves in the ravaged landscape save the ash on the wind it is cold enough to crack stones and when the snow falls it is gray the sky is dark their destination is the coast although they don t know what if anything awaits them there they have nothing just a pistol to defend themselves against the lawless bands that stalk the road the clothes they are wearing a cart of scavenged food and each other the road is the profoundly moving story of a journey it boldly imagines a future in which no hope remains but in which the father and his son each the other s world entire are sustained by love awesome in the totality of its vision it is an unflinching meditation on the worst and the best that we are capable of ultimate destructiveness desperate tenacity and the tenderness that keeps two people alive in the face of total devastation
